Record review of R112 electronic progress notes dated 10/25/21 thru 9/20/22 included an entry made on 11/08/21 at 2:31 PM - "resident continues to intermittently reuse medications and curse at staff, doctor aware."

The record lacked an entry for resident refusing monthly weights and vitals.

Interview on 10/04/22 with resident director A, executive director B, and licensed nurse C confirmed the resident EMAR identified the resident refused to have weight and vitals obtained, and they further confirmed the record showed documentation revealed the facility staff did not document any further attempts in the EMAR. Licensed nurse C confirmed facility staff did not report the repeated refusals by R112 to have his weight obtained to Licensed nurse C or resident director B. Resident director A, executive director B, and licensed nurse C further confirmed R112 electronic progress notes lacked documentation of the R112 refusals of being weighed monthly, and they further confirmed R112 primary care provider was not notified of his repeated refusals of being weighed. Resident director A and executive director B revealed they obtained a weight on the resident and the current weight as of 10/03/22 was 110.4 pounds. Licensed nurse C confirmed this was a total weight loss of 23 pounds, she further confirmed the resident record lacked the documentation showing the weight loss and the R112 primary care provider was not notified of the weight loss.

The licensed nurse followed professional standards or practice for R112 related to
